2. Since the program is a more or less improvised one, set up to meet emergency requirements, the Director advised me at a short meeting that he is prepared to keep only such basic records as are necessary to show the entrance, and general attendance of the student to which of course, the Office of the Director of Training will be required to certify.

3. There is submitted herewith the signed original of the letter of transmittal and copy of Contractor's letter of 18 April 1951. These are part of the basic agreement, the original of which was left with you by the undersigned several days ago.
